

Apostle

K.J. Mack

BIO

Apostle K.J. Mack is a native of Livingston, AL, where he was born to Earlie B. and Mary Mack. He is married to Lady Madra Mack. He has three beautiful children: Christopher, Kayla, and Madison. Apostle K.J. Mack received Christ at an early age in 1992. He moved to Birmingham, AL in May of 1998.

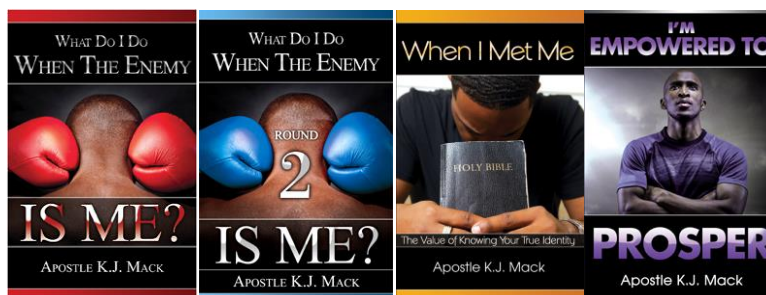

Apostle Mack received his calling October 7, 2001. He furthered his studies in theology at Berean University in Springfield, Missouri. In November 2002 he was ordained Youth Pastor of the New Birth Christian Church, in which the Youth department started to soar under his direction and his gifts in the area of music, as well as writing and composing gospel plays.

In February 2004 he was ordained Assistant Pastor of New Birth Christian Church. In April, 2006, Apostle Mack birthed Rhema Word Ministries in Birmingham, AL. with two members; and through hard work, dedication and a sincere heart for God there has been expeditious growth.

In 2008 he was ordained to the office of an Apostle. Through Apostle's teachings God has allowed him to impart leadership strategies, development strategies, as well as spiritual empowerment for God's people. In 2010 three other churches were birthed: Rhema Word West (Livingston, AL.); Amazing Faith Ministries, and Kingdom Building Ministries. Apostle Mack also serves as Overseer and a spiritual father to a host of other churches in multiple states.

Pastor Mack holds a doctorate of philosophy degree from Alabama Theological Seminary, as well as doctorate of Divinity & Theology degrees from Agape Bible College in Birmingham, Alabama.

He serves as chaplain for the Birmingham Police Department, is a certified in suicide prevention, and is a certified grant writer. The multi-anointed "Apostle" works in all five gifts of the five-fold ministry and is author of several books including: What Do I Do When The Enemy Is Me? (Parts 1 & 2) and When I Met Me, and I'm Empowered To Prosper.

BOOKING INFORMATION

Apostle K.J. Mack – Rhema Word Ministries
4516 Richard Arrington Blvd N.
Birmingham, AL 35205
p: 205.960.8606
info@kjmack.org